

Goulburn to Crookwell via Taralga, Laggan, Pejar Dam & Kingsdale

Driving Time: 1hr 37mins - Distance: 126km

Depart Goulburn, heading north along Taralga Road you will take in the rolling hills and astonishing wind turbines as you drive through the countryside to Taralga. Once there you will find some fantastic historical buildings dating back to the 1860s. Leaving Taralga along the Laggan-Taralga Road, you will pass through Laggan before arriving in Crookwell. On the scenic tour south back to Goulburn along Crookwell Road, you will find Pejar Dam. Pejar Dam is a popular spot for trout anglers, stocked with rainbow and brown trout. Powered and unpowered boats as well as kayaks/canoes are all permitted with barbeques, picnic shelters, untreated water and rubbish bins all provided. As you continue down Crookwell Road you'll pass the beautiful & picturesque locality of Kingsdale, overlooking Lake Sooley before arriving back in Goulburn.

Goulburn to Tarago via Lake Bathurst, Windellama & Quialigo

Driving Time: 1hr 17mins - Distance: 103.3km

Depart Goulburn, heading south along Braidwood Road, passing through Lake Bathurst to Tarago. Lake Bathurst is not accessible to the public and is not a typical "lake" as it is empty most months of the year but, in season is actually a wetland haven for wading birds. You will also find some astounding WWII fuel tanks hidden away in hills around Lake Bathurst. Once in Tarago you will find some stunning historic buildings dating back to the 1840s. As you depart Tarago, heading east along Lumley Road, you will turn right onto Cullulla Road and left onto Oallen Ford Road before arriving in the picturesque locality of Windellama. The trip north-west along Windellama Road takes you past Quialigo and the Goulburn Airport before arriving back in Goulburn.

A Guide to Short Drives

Goulburn to Breadalbane via Parkesbourne

Driving Time: 50mins - Distance: 56.2km

Depart Goulburn, heading west along Addison Street/Gurrundah Road and turn left onto Merilla Lane to see a picture perfect piece of countryside in Parkesbourne. From here travel along Breadalbane Road onto Breadalbane, made famous by the notorious Ben Hall and his gang in the 1860s with plenty of beautiful period buildings to see. Depart Breadalbane on Cullerin Road, turning onto the Hume Highway and passing Yarra at the intersection of the Federal and Hume Highways before coming back into Goulburn along Hume Street.

Goulburn to Tallong via Bungonia, Marulan, Wingello & Towrang

Driving Time: 2hr 1min - Distance: 127.3km

Depart Goulburn, heading south-east along Mountain Ash Road, weaving through the beautiful countryside on your way to Bungonia. A short drive from Bungonia, along Lookdown Road is the Bungonia National Park with breathtaking views from a multitude of lookouts. You will depart Bungonia along Jerrara Road turning onto the Hume Highway for a short trip before arriving in Marulan, the only town on the 150th Meridian. Depart Marulan back along the Hume Highway, turning right onto Highland Way where you will travel through Tallong to Wingello. Tallong has stunning views of the Morton National Park, Shoalhaven Gorge and River from the Long Point and Badgerys Lookouts. Wingello delights the senses with aromas from the surrounding pine and eucalypt trees in the Wingello State Forest. Depart Wingello along Murrimba Road, crossing the Hume Highway onto Inverary Road, passing Brayton onto Carrick Road to the historic Towrang Stockade. Throughout Towrang you will find convict graves, a powder magazine and the convict built Towrang Bridge. From here it's just a short drive back on the Hume Highway to Goulburn.
